

GOALS (Fall 2007)

COLLEGE OF HUMANITIES AND BEHAVIORAL SCIENCES

- Develop Mission and Vision Statements
- Form a Pedagogical Research Group
 - Provides opportunity for professional development
 - Builds upon our strength in teaching
 - Produces significant publications
 - Affects policy decisions
- Explore Instituting College Curricular Requirements
 - Foreign Language Requirement for International
 - Communication Intensive Course
- Develop a Center for Ethics and Understanding of Religious Beliefs
- Increase Percentage of RU Students in Humanities and Behavioral Sciences
- Increase Number of Graduate Programs
- Actively Recruit Excellent Students
- Garner Support for Distinguished Professors
- Make Excellence Visible
 - Meet with departments to discuss academics
 - Join National Consortium for Political and Social Research
 - Promote student research
 - Promote Study Abroad
 - Fund Scholarships
 - Host Virginia Humanities Conference
 - Investigate the role of the B.A. in our curriculum
 - Institute advising education